LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

This Ordinance creates two on street handicapped parking spaces, known as Restricted Parking Spaces under N.J.S.A 39:4-197.5. One stall will assist a resident at 49 Harrison Avenue with a Disabled Persons Identification issued by the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission. This will be created on the northwesterly side of Harrison Avenue just southwest of its intersection with Maple Street. This resident resides in a mixed use multifamily building, and the application of N.J.S.A. 39:4-197.6, Restricted Parking Zone, would not be appropriate. The second stall will be located on the westerly side of High Street in front of the First Shiloh Baptist Church at street number 135 just south of Ridge Avenue. This stall will be available for members of the Church. These two stalls while assisting a resident of 49 Harrison Avenue and members of the First Shiloh Baptist Church at 135 High Street will be available to anyone with a NJMVC Disabled Persons Identification with a corresponding special vehicle identification card.
