Re: Tom Summers's Employment with Computer Design and Services

Dear Mr. Nekoukar:

Mr. Summers recently left Computer Design & Services for another full-time computer technician position. Because the Township of West Orange retained CDS as its expert in this litigation, I discussed the issue of his continuing to serve as your expert in the West Orange v. Link litigation as an independent contractor. As I advised you, Mr. Summers had specifically agreed to do so.

However, based on my understanding of your colleague's conversation with Mr. Summers yesterday afternoon, and based on my subsequent phone call with him yesterday evening, it is clear to me that he is no longer willing to serve as an expert in this matter on behalf of CDS. As he explained to me, this is due to his commitment to his new company, as well as significant personal issues that he is dealing with.

As we have discussed, CDS has employed a new analyst who I believe is qualified to examine the equipment that Mr. Summers analyzed, review his findings, and comment briefly on Mr. Summers's conclusions. I regret this unexpected inconvenience, and hope that CDS can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,
